1 Plaintiff Kevin Michael D. Longboy (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that 2 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 3 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants Pinnacle Property
6 Management Services, LLC, InterSolutions, LLC, and Does 1 through 10
7 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and 8 unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 9 wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 10 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours 11 worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, 12 failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate 13 wage statements.

14 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually
15 and as a class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees
16 of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class 17 Members” and defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all 18 other persons who have been employed by any Defendants in California as an 19 hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period 20 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

21 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action 22 under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil 23 penalties that are owed to Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present
24 employees of Defendants (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

25 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, 26 and establishment within the State of California, including San Mateo County. As 27 such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’
28 business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage

1 Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and the California
2 Business & Professions Code.

3 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 4 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 5 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all 6 minimum wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the 7 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 8 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal
9 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC
10 Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal
11 periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour’s 12 pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- 13 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and 14 duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor 15 Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional 16 hour’s pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- 17 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses 18 incurred;
- 19 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime
20 wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium
21 wages due within the time period specified by California law 22 when employment terminates; and
- 23 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees 24 worked.
- 25 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage 26 statements containing all the information required by the
27 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of San Mateo, State of California, as an assistant property manager from approximately June 2020 to January 27, 2022.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant Pinnacle Property Management Services, LLC is:

- (a) A limited liability company with its principal place of business in San Mateo, California.
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in San Mateo County; and
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant InterSolutions, LLC is:

- (a) A limited liability company with its principal place of business in San Mateo, California.
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in San Mateo County;
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions; and
- (d) At all times relevant herein, Defendants, and each of them, were joint employers of Plaintiff and the Class.

12. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other

1 persons, employed Plaintiff and the other employees described in the class
2 definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working
3 conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all 4 relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer,
5 officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation,
6 successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other
7 Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint 8 enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other 9 Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged 10 below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant 11 acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each 12 Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, 13 approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

14 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

15 15. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the 16 County of San Mateo, State of California, as an assistant property manager from 17 approximately June 2020 to January 27, 2022. During the statutory period,
18 Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California's overtime
19 requirements, and paid Plaintiff an hourly wage.

20 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for 21 all hours worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to 22 provide Plaintiff with uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit 23 Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for 24 necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when 25 Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish accurate wage 26 statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 27 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

1 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and 2 practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including all
3 overtime wages. Plaintiff and the Class received non-discretionary bonuses,
4 commissions, additional compensation, and other remuneration. However,
5 Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct
6 overtime rate of pay, meal break penalty rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay,
7 leading to underpayment to Plaintiff and the Class. Also throughout the statutory 8 period, Defendants altered Plaintiff and the Class's time records to avoid meal 9 break penalties and to reduce the number of hours worked, leading to 10 underpayment to Plaintiff and the Class. Also throughout the statutory period, 11 Plaintiff and the Class were required to work off the clock, and uncompensated. For 12 example, Plaintiff and the Class regularly clocked out of work and continued to 13 assist residents while off the clock, and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the 14 Class would regularly use their personal cellular telephones for work purposes
15 while off the clock, and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Class would spend 16 time in order to clock into the work computer, which would take substantial time to 17 boot up, which was off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Class 18 would sometimes arrive at work early, but were unable to clock into work, and so 19 would work off the clock and uncompensated.

20 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to 21 provide Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants 22 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of 23 five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, continuous and 24 uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 25 compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by the 26 end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not 27 adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the 28 end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the 1 tenth hour of work. Defendants also failed to accurately record meal periods.

2 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to 3 Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with California law.

4 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to 5 authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest
6 periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to 7 work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and 8 permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for 9 every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating
10 Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted.
11 Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to 12 take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or 13 practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did 14 Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods.
15 Defendants also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether 16 Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants 17 did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 18 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during 19 the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was 20 to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in 21 compliance with California law.

22 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required
23 Plaintiff and the Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their 24 duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included home internet costs, 25 home computer costs, printers, and home office supplies. Also Plaintiff and the 26 Class would be required to use their own personal cellular telephones for work 27 purposes, without reimbursement.

1 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and 2 refused to timely pay Plaintiff and the Class at the conclusion of their employment
3 all wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 4 and rest period premium wages.

5 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff
6 and the Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable 7 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked,
8 correct wages earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct
9 wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, 10 correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in 11 accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage 12 statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a 13 result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and the 14 Class suffered injury because, among other things:

- 15 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to 16 be paid minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium
17 wages, and rest period premium wages to which they were 18 entitled, even though they were entitled;
- 19 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the 20 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
21 premium wages, even though they had not been;
- 22 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be 23 paid minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
24 premium wages at the correct California rate even though they 25 were;
- 26 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum,
27 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 28 at the correct California rate even though they had not been;

- 1 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of
2 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
3 premium owed to them;
- 4 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this 5 action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the 6 violations caused them to have to perform mathematical
7 computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them,
8 computations they would not have to make if the wage
9 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 10 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused 11 them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of 12 Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other
13 governmental benefits;
- 14 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours,
15 and wages rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, 16 and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and 17 wage rates to which they were entitled.

18 Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor
19 Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

20 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

21 23. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each 22 and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under 23 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24 24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff
25 seeks relief authorized by California law.

26 25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

27 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an 28 hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the period

beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

26. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

27. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees

1 that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the 2 prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class
3 member.

4 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available
5 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the 6 controversy, including consideration of:
7 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
8 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
9 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the 10 controversy already commenced by or against members of 11 the Class;
12 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the 13 litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and 14 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the 15 management of a class action.

16 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of 17 California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of 18 many employees through a class action. Indeed, current 19 employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of 20 direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful
21 of bringing actions because they believe their former employers
22 might damage their future endeavors through negative
23 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class 24 members who are not named in the complaint with a type of 25 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the 26 same time as their privacy is protected.

27 29. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each 28 subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual

1 members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants 2 have:

- 3 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including 4 minimum wages, and overtime wages;
- 5 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium
6 wages to Class Members;
- 7 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period
8 premium wages to Class Members;
- 9 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon 10 their discharge or resignation;
- 11 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members 12 worked, and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 13 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business 14 expenses; and
- 15 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et.
16 seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

17 30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action 18 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 19 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate 20 over any question affecting only individual members;
- 21 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the 22 fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of 23 the Class;
- 24 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical
25 to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- 26 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to 27 obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is 28 maintained as a class action;

- 1 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal 2 and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining 3 adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which 4 Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately
5 compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- 6 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions 7 by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 8 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to 9 individual members of the Class which would establish 10 incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or
 - 11 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members 12 which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the 13 interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, 14 or would substantially impair or impede their ability to 15 protect their interests, including but not limited to the 16 potential for exhausting the funds available from those 17 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- 18 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally
19 applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief
20 appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

21 31. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed 22 members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant 23 action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the 24 preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any 25 further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the use of additional 26 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-27 mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other 28 methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the 1 Court.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours
4 Worked)

5 32. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated
6 herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

7 33. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the 8 control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or 9 permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

10 34. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to 11 pay to Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their 12 failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants 13 willfully violated the provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and 14 any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-15 exempt employees.

16 35. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum 17 wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

18 36. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class 19 have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their 20 employment with Defendants.

21 37. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional 22 compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked 23 without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages
24 in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class, but which 25 exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained 26 according to proof at trial.

1 38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor
 2 Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of 3 minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

4 39. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the 5 Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants'
 6 failure to pay minimum wages.

7 40. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide 8 employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute 9 of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were 10 entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum 11 wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and 12 refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to pay those 13 wages twice a month.

14 41. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid 15 minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 16 California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

19 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated
 20 herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

21 43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California
 22 shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours 23 in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular 24 wages in amounts specified by law.

25 44. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in 26 California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they 27 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified 28 by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of

1 an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare
2 Commission is unlawful.

3 45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

5 46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 6 Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the 7 maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510
8 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

9 47. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium
10 rate compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, 11 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in 12 amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional 13 minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

14 48. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code §
15 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime
16 compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

17 49. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation
18 according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor 19 Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against 20 Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other 21 statutes.

22 50. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees 23 with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that 24 every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the 25 period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll
26 period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all compensation 27 due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

52. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

54. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

1 56. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit 2 breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of 3 four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code,
4 the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer permit and authorize all
5 employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for each 4-hour period
6 worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, 7 the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as 8 so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of 9 Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any 10 employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

11 57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize 12 Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked 13 more than 4 hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff 14 and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that 15 Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest 16 periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the 17 California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

18 58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one 19 hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all 20 required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

24 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated
25 herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

26 60. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage 27 Orders, by failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

61. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

62. Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

64. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

65. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

66. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

67. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

68. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

69. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

70. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

71. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the

1 name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or 2 an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the 3 name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable
4 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
5 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

6 72. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide 7 employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, 8 among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by 9 Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the 10 employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

11 73. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), 12 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-13 protected rights.

14 74. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured 15 by Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because 16 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in 17 receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 18 226(a).

19 75. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is 20 difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the 21 Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain 22 correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of 23 the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

24 76. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their 25 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor
26 Code § 226(a).

27 77. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as 28 an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section,

1 pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

2 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions
4 Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

5 78. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated
6 herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

7 79. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under 8 California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

9 80. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be,
10 unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general
11 public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
12 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

13 81. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California
14 law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California 15 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

16 82. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et 17 seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts 18 described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, 19 are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral,
20 unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair,
21 unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business
22 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

24 83. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in 25 violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity 26 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

27 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

28 84. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in

1 violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful
 2 and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 3 17200, et seq.

4 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

5 85. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in 6 accordance with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders
 7 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business &
 8 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

10 86. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with 11 California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged 12 above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business
 13 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

14 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

15 87. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance 16 with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
 17 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions
 18 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

19 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

20 88. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business
 21 expenses in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage 22 Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by 23 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

24 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

25 89. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in 26 accordance with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes 27 unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions
 28 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 90. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
 2 practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money
 3 and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived
 4 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits
 5 guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

6 91. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct 7 result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

8 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class,
 9 is entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money
 10 and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which 11 Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, 12 unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not 13 obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants 14 in order to recover restitution.

15 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class,
 16 are further entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business 17 practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the 18 Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, 19 unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

20 94. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, 21 have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which 22 the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful 23 and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or 24 fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf
 25 of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to suffer 26 irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from 27 continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

28 95. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

96. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

98. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

99. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

100. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On January 23, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice

1 by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified
2 mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants
3 have violated against Plaintiff and current and former aggrieved employees,
4 including the facts and theories to support the violations (See attached as Exhibit
5 A). Plaintiff's PAGA case number is No. LWDA-CM-931012-23. At the time of 6 this filing, 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 7 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate
8 Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff
9 may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699
10 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this 11 Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 12 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

13 101. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of 14 California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any 15 person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain 16 accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject 17 to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every 18 employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each 19 work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
20 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 21 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

22 102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 23 Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and 24 IWC Orders by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and 25 accurate records showing when employees begin and end each work period.
26 Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code 27 IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 28 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

103. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

103. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First,

1 Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;

2 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and 3 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

4 As to the First Cause of Action

5 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated
 6 California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by 7 willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;

8 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
 9 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing 10 from the date such amounts were due;

11 7. For liquidated damages;
 12 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein
 13 pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 15 appropriate.

16 As to the Second Cause of Action

17 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated
 18 California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by 19 willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;

20 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be 21 appropriate;

22 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation
 23 commencing from the date such amounts were due;

24 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein
 25 pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

26 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 27 appropriate.

28 As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements;

47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, et seq., and all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699;

49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to all Causes of Action

50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
